HOME ALONE II: LOST IN NEW YORK 🏠🏠🏠 PRODUCTION DRAFT B 9/10/91

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. NIGHT

All the lights are on. Cars are parked in the driveway.

INT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. FOYER

Kids are running up and down the stairs with suitcases, sporting equipment, hair dryers, Walkmans, travel debris. Pre-travel chaos.

TRACEY

(coming down)

Has anybody seen my sunblock?

SONDRA

(going up)

What's the point of going to Florida if you're going to put on sunblock?

MEGAN

(coming down)

I don't care if I age like an old suitcase, I'm getting roasted.

JEFF

(going up)

So you'll be a skag with a slightly darker shade of skin.

LINNIE

Jeff's jealous because he doesn't tan. His freckles just connect.

INT. FAMILY ROOM

HT0000001

Uncle Frank's sitting on the sofa with his feet up on the coffee table. He's zipping through the cable stations. Fuller's sitting next to him drinking a Coke.

UNCLE FRANK

Go easy on the fluids, pal. The rubber sheets are packed.

INT. MASTER BEDROOM

Kate's packing a suitcase. Kevin's on the bed watching TV. He's dressed in grey slacks and a white shirt. He has a recording Walkman. He's recording and playing back.

KATE

Honey? Do you have all your stuff packed?

Kevin puts the Walkman to his mouth and whispers into it. Kate walks into the bathroom. Kevin rewinds and plays back...

KEVIN'S VOICE

Yes.

KATE (OS)

All the stuff I put out for you?

Kevin whispers into the Walkman again, rewinds and plays back...

KEVIN'S VOICE

Not the pants with the little idiot guys sewed all over them.

Kate comes out of the bathroom with her toiletries.

KATE

They aren't little idiot guys, they're little golfers, and those pants are for you to play golf in.

KEVIN

Nobody my age goes to Florida to play golf.

KATE

Did you see what Grandma Ellie sent you for the trip?

KEVIN

Let me guess. Tweety Bird swim fins?

Kate holds up a six-inch-square plastic package.

KATE

It's an inflatable clown to play with in the pool.

Kevin rolls his eyes and turns back to the TV.

CU. TV

HT0000001

It's a game show. A smarmy HOST is saying farewell.

HOST

Thanks for joining us. We'll see you tomorrow on the new Celebrity Ding-Dang-Dong! Bye-bye!

A card featuring a photograph of a New York hotel comes on. It's a big, old tower.

ANNOUNCER

Guests of the new Celebrity Ding-Dang-Dong! stay at the world renowned Kensington Towers Hotel, New York's most exciting hotel experience. For reservations at the Kensington Towers or any of the other fine American Star hotels worldwide, call 1-800-SANDMAN.

INT. MASTER BEDROOM

Peter walks into the room with the McCallister Christmas bell ornament. He rings it for Kate.

PETER
Found the Christmas bell.
(to Kevin)
Are you packed?

Kevin rewinds his tape.

KEVIN'S VOICE
Yes.

PETER
Are you getting a cold?

KEVIN
No.

Kate comes out of the bathroom. Peter hands her the bell.

PETER
It was in with the Easter decorations.

Figures.

Kate gives the bell a ring and puts it in the suitcase.

HT0000001

KEVIN
How can we have Christmas in Florida? There's no snow. It won't seem like Christmas at all.

KATE
Christmas isn't about snow.

PETER
(to Kevin)
You better go get your tie on.

KEVIN
My tie's in my room and I can't go in there. Uncle Frank's taking a shower in the kid's bathroom. He said that if I walked in and saw him naked, I'd grow up never feeling like a real man. Whatever that means.

Kate gives Peter a dirty look.

PETER

(to Kate)

I'm sure he was kidding.

(to Kevin)

Just run in and get your tie. It's okay.

KEVIN

Does Uncle Frank have a lot of muscles nobody knows about?

KATE

Just in his head, honey. Go.

INT. HOUSE. UPSTAIRS HALLWAY

Sondra and Megan drag their suitcases out of Megan's room. Kevin comes out of the master bedroom.

MEGAN

Dad said we have to have our suitcases down by the door before we go to the Christmas Pageant.

KEVIN

Are you my new mother?

SONDRA

Remember what happened last year?

KEVIN

No, actually, I don't. Aliens erased my memory.

SONDRA

You mean your brain.

HT0000001

Kevin points the tape recorder at the girls and presses the play button. A tape recorded BELCH.

MEGAN

You're nauseating.

They continue down the stairs. Kevin laughs.

INT. KEVIN'S ROOM

Kevin sneaks in. The shower in the adjoining bathroom is running. Uncle Frank is SINGING "COOL JERK". Terrible, off-key, embarrassing singing. Kevin sneaks to the bathroom door. It's ajar.

INT. BATHROOM. CU. KEVIN

He pushes the door open and peeks in. He holds out his tape recorder.

INT. BATHROOM. SHOWER

Through the shower curtain, the outline of Frank singing and doing the Jerk. He suddenly stops and yanks the curtain aside.

UNCLE FRANK

Get outta here, you nosey little pervert! Or I'll come out and slap you silly!

INT. KEVIN'S ROOM

He jumps out of the bathroom and slams the door. He clicks his tape recorder off, grabs his tie off the bed and exits.

INT. BUZZ'S ROOM

Buzz is standing at the closet tying his necktie. He's wearing grey slacks and a blue blazer. Rod's lying on the bed. Jeff's combing his hair in the mirror.

ROD

How come you have to sing in a grade school kiddie program?

BUZZ

I'm in church choir. The school borrowed us to sing the low parts the twirps can't sing because their nuts haven't dropped yet.

ROD

You're in a church choir?

BUZZ

I have a beautiful voice.

HT0000001

JEFF

And you like to watch the girls' choir change into their robes.

BUZZ

That's definitely a perk.

Kevin comes into the room.

KEVIN

Buzz?

BUZZ

(turning slowly)

Excuse me. When you're in my room, on my turf, on my sovereign territory, I'm Mr. Buzz.

KEVIN

I called you Mr. Buzz this afternoon and you mooned me.

BUZZ
You weren't in my room.

JEFF
Knock it off, Buzz.

KEVIN
Can you help me tie my tie?

BUZZ
You trust me with your neck?

KEVIN
(thinks, rejects)
Jeff?

JEFF
Don't look at me. I'm a clip-on man. Ask Dad.

KEVIN
He showed me a bunch of times but I forgot. He said I had to do it myself.
(after a pause)
Rod?

ROD
Sorry. I never wear ties. I have an image to protect.

CU. KEVIN

He looks up nervously at Buzz.

CU. BUZZ

He grins.

HT0000001

BUZZ
Being a dependent little worm definitely has some serious disadvantages.

INT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. FOYER. LATER

The two families are gathered in the foyer. They're putting on their coats.

FRANK
I don't understand why we have to go watch your kids sing. You never see our kids sing.

KATE
(to Buzz)
Where's Kevin?

BUZZ

Last time I saw him, he was fooling around like we don't have to be anywhere important tonight.

KATE

Kevin! Get down here! We're leaving!

INT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. STAIRS. CU. FEET

Kevin's shiny, little loafers step INTO FRAME. As he comes down the stairs, he steps into CLOSE-UP and stops. He's scowling. His tie is knotted into a huge ball around his neck. Two inches of tie hang down from the baseball-size knot.

HIS POV

The families are looking up at him.

FRANK

(after a pause, chuckling)

Hey, sport, you trying for Worst Dressed Dink in the Fifth Grade?

The kids crack up.

CU. KEVIN

HT0000001

He scowls. Another miserable family holiday begins.

EXT. GRADE SCHOOL. WINTER. NIGHT

A beautiful, 1920's, three-story, brick grade school. We HEAR CHILDREN'S VOICES.

INT. SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

A CHILDREN'S CHOIR sings AN ORIGINAL CHRISTMAS SONG. The lights are down. The Children are holding electric "candles."

CU. KEVIN

Singing.

CU. BUZZ

Singing. He looks down.

HIS POV

Kevin's in front of him and a riser down.

CU. BUZZ

He taps a geeky KID next to him.

INT. AUDITORIUM. AUDIENCE. KATE

She's watching with great pleasure and pride. She leans over to Peter and whispers...

KATE

Kevin's solo's coming up. Tell Leslie.

CAMERA MOVES WITH Peter as he leans over to Leslie and whispers...

PETER

Kevin's solo is coming up.

Leslie nods and CAMERA MOVES WITH her as she leans over to Frank. He's asleep, head back, mouth open, snoring to beat all hell. Leslie smacks him.

CU. KEVIN

He's nervous. He looks to his left.

HIS POV

A plump, matronly MUSIC TEACHER, accompanying the choir on piano, gives Kevin a reassuring smile and nod signalling him that he's to begin his solo.

CU. BUZZ

He takes the geeky Kid's candle. He grins devilishly.

CU. KEVIN

He takes a deep breath and bows his head...

CU. BUZZ

He moves the candles toward Kevin's head.

HT0000001

CU. KEVIN

He lifts his head and begins to sing. His ears glow bright orange. Buzz is holding the candles behind his ears.

CU. KATE

A puzzled look. She leans forward.

HER POV

Kevin sings with great gusto, unaware that his ears are illuminated. A few TITTERS break out in the audience.

CU. KEVIN

He hears the scattered laughter. He doesn't understand why.

CU. PETER

He looks over his shoulder as the laughter spreads.

CU. FRANK

He lets out a great bellowing, snorting, horse laugh.

INT. AUDITORIUM. STAGE

Kevin sings on, ears blazing. He can't figure out what's so funny. A line in the song requires him to put his hands to his ears. As he does so, the audience explodes with laughter.

KEVIN'S POV

The audience is shrieking, bouncing in their seats.

CU. KEVIN

He looks to the side. The Choir is laughing now. He turns around slowly and sees Buzz holding the two candles, grinning.

EXT. STAGE. KEVIN AND BUZZ

Kevin punches Buzz in the stomach. He falls back, throwing out his arms, smacking the two Kids next to him. They bang into the Kids next to them. One stumbles forward and knocks into a Child below him. The Teacher jumps up from the piano bench, the laughter dies.

CU. KATE

She bolts forward, wide-eyed with shock.

KEVIN!

KATE

HT0000001

INT. AUDITORIUM. STAGE

The curtain falls on the collapsed and tangled Choir.

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. NIGHT. LATER

The lights are burning brightly.

INT. LIVING ROOM. CU. KEVIN

Scowling, sour and angry. Arms folded across his chest.

CU. BUZZ

Looking remorseful and sad.

INT. LIVING ROOM

Buzz and Kevin are in chairs in front of the fireplace as if on trial.

REVERSE

Peter, Kate, Linnie, Megan, Jeff, Rod, Sondra, Tracey, Brooke, Fuller, Uncle Frank and Aunt Leslie are gathered on the sofa, love seat, chairs and floor. All eyes are on Buzz and Kevin.

INT. LIVING ROOM

Buzz clears his throat and puts on his most sincere face.

BUZZ

I'm sorry. I was immature. I was... nutty in a delinquent fashion. I apologize to all of you. And I apologize...

(to Kevin)

...to you. Sorry, Kev. I will never disparage your cars again. I hope you can forgive me.

(to the family)

And I give you my word that I will not engage in any more hijinks that might spoil our trip to Florida and set a tone inconsistent with the spirit of this most sacred holiday.

Kate smiles proudly.

HT0000001

KATE

That was very nice, Buzz. I'm glad you realized that what you did was wrong.

Kevin looks at Kate with a look of profound incredulity.

BUZZ

It was just plain wicked. Evil. Horrid. But most off all, shameful and disrespectful. To you and to my brother.

KATE

Kevin? What do you have to say?

CU. KEVIN

He looks from Kate to Buzz. He's shocked.

HIS POV

Buzz turns to him. He blocks his face from the others by casually stroking his nose. He curls his lips back and rattles his retainer at Kevin in a deliberate repudiation of his apology.

BUZZ

(whispers)

Beat that, you little trout sniffer.

He immediately turns back to the family with a sorrowful expression.

CU. KEVIN

He holds his temper and looks to the family.

HIS POV

MOVING. CAMERA PANS the expectant faces of the assembled family members ending on Fuller heartily drinking a Coke.

CU. KEVIN

A long beat and he speaks.

KEVIN

I'm not sorry. I did what I did because Buzz humiliated me and, since he gets away with everything, I let him have it, and since you're all so stupid to believe his lies, I don't care if your idiotic Florida trip gets wrecked or not. Who wants to spend Christmas in a tropical climate anyway?

INT. LIVING ROOM

HT0000001

Kevin stands up and starts for the door.

KATE

Kevin!

PETER

If you walk out of here, you'll sleep on the third floor!

KEVIN

So what else is new?

UNCLE FRANK

You better not wreck my trip, you little sour puss.
Your Dad's paying good money for it.

Kevin exits. The family sits silently. A little deja vu.

KATE

Excuse me.

Kate exits.

INT. THIRD FLOOR BEDROOM. KEVIN

He's lying on the bed, hands behind his head. He's mumbling to himself.

KEVIN

They're all a bunch of jerks...

Kate marches up the stairs.

KATE

Last time we all tried to go on a trip, we had a problem that started just like this.

KEVIN

Yeah. With me getting crapped on.

KATE

I don't care for your choice of words. That isn't what happened last time and it isn't what's happening this time. Buzz apologized to you.

KEVIN

Then he wiggled his retainer at me. He didn't mean what he said. He's just sucking up to you.

KATE

Your father's spending a lot of money to take all of us to Florida.

KEVIN

That's his problem.

HT0000001

KATE

You sit up here for awhile and think things over. When you're ready to apologize to Buzz and the rest of the family...

Kevin points his Walkman at her.

KEVIN

Would you repeat that? Please?

KATE

Turn that thing off!

Kevin sets the Walkman down.

KEVIN

I'm not apologizing to Buzz. I'd rather kiss a toilet seat.

KATE

Then you can stay up here the rest of the night.

KEVIN

Fine. I don't want to be down there anyway. And you know what? If I had my own money, I'd go on my own vacation. By myself. Alone. Without any of you guys. And I'd have the most fun of my whole life.

KATE

You got your wish last year, maybe you'll get it again this year.

CU. KEVIN

He's silenced by the remark. He recalls his last brush with angry wishes. He steels himself and fires a last fatal retort.

KEVIN

I hope so.

CU. KATE

Tired of the battle and disappointed. There's no fight left. She turns and heads down the stairs.

CU. KEVIN

He lifts off the bed to watch Kate go down the stairs. He thinks for a moment and lies back on the bed. He picks up his Walkman. He turns it off.

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. MORNING

Two airport vans are waiting in the driveway.

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. DOORBELL

One of the van DRIVERS pushes the button.

INT. MASTER BEDROOM

Kate and Peter sit bolt upright in bed. They jump out and, facing each other across the bed. scream...

KATE AND PETER

WE SLEPT IN!!

INT. HOUSE. FRONT STAIRS

Family members race up and down the stairs, dressing, shouting, lugging suitcases. It's domestic hysteria.

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. LATER

The front door opens and the families stream out.

HT0000001

KATE

Our McCallisters in the front van, the other
McCallisters in the back van!

Kate has a nylon travel bag slung over her shoulder.

KATE

(clutching the bag)
Money, credit cards, itinerary, Linnie's eye drops, sunglasses...

PETER

Tickets?

Frank exits.

FRANK

I know I shouldn't complain about a free trip but jeez, you people give the worst goddam wake-up calls!

KATE

Frank! Do you have all the tickets?

FRANK

Leslie's in charge of tickets. I'm in charge of motel reservations.

He exits the porch. Leslie rushes out of the house waving the tickets.

LESLIE

Got 'em, Kate!

PETER

Why is it that every time we go on a trip, we leave in a state of confusion?

KATE

Maybe it's because we never go on a trip with less than fourteen people.

EXT. HOUSE

Leslie scoots the last of her kids into the second van. Kate and Peter rush past...

KATE

How many do you have, Les?

LESLIE

Seven.

KATE

Seven. And we are how many?

LESLIE

Fourteen.

Peter and Kate rush to their van.

INT. FIRST VAN

Kate and Peter slide into the seat behind the driver. Their kids are behind them.

KATE

Seven.

(counts herself)

Eight.

(counts Peter)

(the kids)

Ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen...

INT. VAN. FRONT PASSENGER SEAT. FROM BEHIND

Kevin peeks around from the front bucket seat. He's still grumpy.

KEVIN

(displays his ticket)

And this time I'll carry my own ticket. Just in case you guys try and ditch me.

CU. KATE

She breathes a sigh of relief.

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE

The vans pull out.

EXT. O'HARE AIRPORT. TERMINAL. MORNING

The vans are parked at curbside. SKYCAPS are checking the luggage. Frank dishes out the tickets.

FRANK

(to Peter)

We're short one.

PETER

(to Kevin)

Don't you lose that ticket.

KEVIN

I need batteries.

PETER

I don't have any batteries.

Kevin reaches into the travel bag Kate has over her shoulder.

KATE

Not right now, Kevin.
(to Skycap)
What gate do we go to?

SKYCAP

E-15.

Kate slips the travel bag off her shoulder. She sets it on the stack of luggage. Kevin swipes it.

KATE

That's all the way at the end?

SKYCAP

Almost.

KATE

That figures.

MEGAN

Who am I sitting next to?

KATE

You can work that out on the plane.

HT0000001

KEVIN

I took the ticket that's not near any of you guys.

BUZZ

Hey, Mr. Ear Glow, why don't you drop the hurt baby crap. It's getting moldy.

KEVIN

Why don't you shut up?

PETER

Knock it off.

The Skycaps finish the bags. They hand the claim tags to Frank.

FRANK

Give them to my brother. He's the big tipper.

Peter takes the tags. Kevin looks in Kate's bag for the batteries.

INSERT: BAG

Kevin finds a cash-filled envelope.

CU. KEVIN

His eyebrows pop up at the sight of a thousand dollars.

EXT. AIRPORT

Kate shepherds the kids into the terminal.

KATE

Let's go!

(to Kevin)

Give me my bag.

KEVIN

I gotta get the batteries.

SKYCAP

You folks better get moving.

KATE

(to Kevin)

Bring the bag and do it on the plane!

BUZZ

I told you he was trying to wreck the trip.

Kevin takes a swat at Buzz. Frank grabs his arm.

FRANK

Are you trying to make us miss the plane?

KATE

Come on!

INT. AIRPORT. CONCOURSE

HT0000001

The families hurry down the crowded corridor.

INT. AIRPORT. CONCOURSE. KEVIN

He's wearing his Walkman, trotting along as he fishes a package of batteries out of Kate's bag. Jeff and Linnie pass him by. Peter runs past. Kevin looks up...

CU. KEVIN

He picks up his pace, running blindly, as he puts the new batteries into his Walkman.

INT. AIRPORT. SNACK BAR

Another 727 pulls away from the gate.

EXT. RUNWAY

The first 727 takes off.

INT. AIRPLANE. PETER AND KATE

Settled in, exhausted. They're in first class.

KATE
Maybe we should try going on a vacation by ourselves. Just you and me.

PETER

And miss all this fun? I don't know what we'd do with ourselves if we weren't separating fighting kids and looking for lost luggage and tickets and running for planes. It could be a little too relaxing for us.

KATE

I'm really disappointed in Kevin. He did the exact same thing he did last year.

PETER

At least we didn't leave him home this time.

EXT. SECOND AIRPLANE

Flying.

INT. AIRPLANE

Kevin's eating breakfast. He's seated next to an attractive COLLEGE GIRL.

COLLEGE GIRL

Are you flying by yourself?

Kevin stares at her. He doesn't understand.

COLLEGE GIRL

I mean are you with somebody? Your parents?

KEVIN

Oh. Yeah.

HT0000001

COLLEGE GIRL

When I was little I used to fly myself.

KEVIN

You were a pilot?

COLLEGE GIRL

No. My parents were divorced. My Dad would put me on the plane in New York and send me to my mother in Portland, Oregon.

KEVIN

Oh. Was it scary?

COLLEGE GIRL

One time it was. We had to make an emergency landing in Denver, and when we switched planes I got lost.

KEVIN

For how long?

Overnight. COLLEGE GIRL

Where'd you sleep? KEVIN

In a phone booth. COLLEGE GIRL

The cops didn't help you? KEVIN

I avoided them. I was afraid they'd put me in a detention center or a foster home. COLLEGE GIRL

Is that true? KEVIN

They do it with runaways. They have to put them somewhere. So whatever you do, don't get lost. COLLEGE GIRL

She puts on her Walkman.

New York can be pretty tough when you're on your own. COLLEGE GIRL

INSERT: GIRL'S WALKMAN

She presses the PLAY button.

HT0000001

The College Girl lifts her Walkman headphones...

What? COLLEGE GIRL

Florida's real nice. KEVIN

Yeah. You ever been there? COLLEGE GIRL

No. KEVIN

COLLEGE GIRL

You should go some time. It's great. Especially in the winter.

She lies back and returns to her music. Kevin thinks for a moment. He doesn't understand what she meant.

Kevin stands on tiptoe at a ticket counter on the main level.

KEVIN

Excuse me.

A TICKET AGENT is on the phone tapping on her computer.

TICKET AGENT

I'll be with you in a minute.

KEVIN

How come it's so cold outside? Isn't it supposed to be in the seventies? And also, excuse me, I don't see any palm trees or senior citizens in shorts.

TICKET AGENT

(irritated)

Just a moment, please.

KEVIN

Okay.

INT. LA GUARDIA. NEW ANGLE

Kevin steps away from the counter. The New York skyline is clearly visible out the windows. Kevin doesn't see it until...he turns casually. Looks out the window. He turns back to the counter.

CU. KEVIN

He points over his shoulder.

KEVIN

What city is that back there?

CU. TICKET AGENT

An odd question.

TICKET AGENT

New York.

CU. KEVIN

His jaw drops. His eyes pop.

KEVIN

Yikes! I did it again!

CU. TICKET AGENT

Leans forward.

TICKET AGENT

Is something wrong?

CU. KEVIN

He scratches his head.

KEVIN

Where's Florida?

CU. TICKET AGENT

She points to her right.

About a thousand miles that way.

CU. KEVIN

He goes limp with shock. He sinks behind the counter.

Fast moving traffic.

EXT. BRIDGE. TAXI

A battered yellow cab. Kevin's in the backseat looking out with a big smile.

EXT. ORLANDO AIRPORT

It's raining.

INT. ORLANDO AIRPORT. BAGGAGE AREA

The family's gathered at the carousel.

KATE

Everybody takes their own luggage!

FRANK

I'll have to pass on that, Kate. I have the bad back.
Leslie'll get mine. What's with the rain? I thought this was the land of perpetual sun.

PETER

That's Phoenix.

FRANK

I could have stayed in Ohio if I wanted rain.

Peter snares the first bag off the carousel.

PETER

(looking at the tag)

Give this to Kevin.

He hands it to Kate. She hands it to Frank. He steps away. Leslie takes it and gives it to Rod.

LESLIE

Give this to Kevin.

HT0000001

ROD

(takes it, hands it to Megan)

Give this to Kevin.

The bag passes down the line of kids to Brooke.

BROOKE

(to Fuller)

Give this to Kevin.

Fuller takes the bag. He turns to... nothing.

HIS POV

An ELDERLY COUPLE.

CU. FULLER

Puzzled. He leans to look beyond the Elderly Couple.

CU. BROOKE

Fuller turns behind her. He taps her on the shoulder.

FULLER

Kevin's not here.

INT. AIRPORT. BAGGAGE AREA

Brooke takes the bag and hands it back to Sondra.

BROOKE

Kevin's not here.

Other bags are coming down the line. Sondra takes her bag and hands Kevin's bag to Linnie.

SONDRA

Kevin's not here.

LINNIE

Give this to Fuller.

Kevin's bag returns up the line to Leslie. Kate hands her a bag.

KATE

Give this to Buzz.

Leslie hands Kevin's bag to Kate.

HT0000001

LESLIE

Give this to Peter. Kevin's not here.
(to Rod)

Give this to Buzz.

KATE

(not thinking, to Peter)

Kevin's not here.

Peter takes the bag. He looks at it. He looks up at Kate.

PETER

What?

CU. KATE

She turns to Leslie and screams.

KATE

KEVIN!

EXT. EMPIRE STATE BUILDING

SEVERE UP ANGLE.

REVERSE

Down on Kevin. Hands on his hips, looking up with a big grin.

KEVIN

Cool.

He heads into the building.

INT. ORLANDO AIRPORT. AIRLINE OFFICE

Kate and Peter are sitting in a small office across a steel desk from an airline SUPERVISOR. Frank and Leslie stand in the open doorway. The Supervisor asks questions and takes down answers.

SUPERVISOR

What's the child's name?

KATE

Kevin.

SUPERVISOR

Where did you last see him?

KATE

(looks to Peter)

Curbside check-in?

HT0000001

PETER

I saw him when we came in the door. He was in the terminal with us.

SUPERVISOR

Most people get separated at security checkpoints. Did everyone get through security?

KATE

I don't know.

SUPERVISOR

Do you recall if to get to your gate you had to make any turns?

PETER

The concourse split into two passageways.

(nods)

Did anyone stop at a restroom, a shop, a restaurant...?

PETER

We were in a hurry. We ran all the way to the gate.

SUPERVISOR

When did you notice that he was missing?

KATE

(embarrassed)

When we picked up our baggage here.

Okay.

(finishes his notes)

What we're doing first is paging the child at O'Hare. 99.9% of these situations are simply one party getting separated from the other at the airport. Chances are that's where he is.

EXT. EMPIRE STATE BUILDING. OBSERVATION DECK

Kevin's hanging off a pay telescope, taking a snapshot of the city.

INT. O'HARE

Main terminal.

EXT. CENTRAL PARK. LATER

Kevin's walking through the park. He sees something familiar.

The Kensington Towers Hotel. Just like the photo on the game show.

CU. KEVIN

He grins.

KEVIN

(like an announcer)

The Kensington Towers. New York's most exciting hotel experience!

Suddenly his happy face freezes. He stares in alarm.

KEVIN

Sick...

HIS POV

An ELDERLY WOMAN stands with her arms spread, covered head-to-toe with pigeons.

EXT. STREET. SUBWAY ENTRANCE

Harry and Marv walk up the steps to the sidewalk. They each have a small duffel bag.
They're wearing ill-fitting overcoats and casual clothes.

HARRY

You know what I smell, Marv?

MARV

Garbage.

HARRY

(ignores Marv)

Freedom.

MARV

(sniffs again)

And falafel.

HARRY

And money.

Marv slowly looks at Harry.

MARV

You don't think we should go straight for a while?

HARRY

And do what? Be doctors? Everything's fine Marv.
There's nothing wrong with what we were doing before.

MARV

Except we spent nine months in the clink.

HT0000001

HARRY
What's the matter?

MARV
I thought I saw something.

HARRY What?

MARV
(shrugs it off)
Nothing.

He takes another look back.

CU. WOMAN

Fashion model-type. She stops as PEDESTRIANS bottle up at the curb. Marv, still looking over his shoulder, rams her from behind.

CU. MARV

He rears back with an apologetic smile.

CU. WOMAN

HT000001

She glares at him.

EXT. INTERSECTION. OPPOSITE CORNER

Kevin jumps the curb and continues down the sidewalk, never having seen Harry and Marv.

EXT. ORLANDO AIRPORT

The rain is coming down in sheets.

INT. ORLANDO AIRPORT. AIRLINE OFFICE. CU. KATE

INT. OFFICE. DOORWAY

Three Orlando COPS stand in the doorway.

ORLANDO COP
Mrs. McCallister? Sergeant Bennett, Orlando Police.
We're involved in the situation now.

INT. OFFICE

Kate and Peter. The sight of the Officers frightens them.

EXT. KENSINGTON TOWERS HOTEL

Kevin walks into the hotel.

INT. HOTEL. FRONT DOOR

Kevin comes through the revolving door. He looks around the massive lobby.

KEVIN

This is great.

HIS POV

A grand, old hotel lobby with a gilded ceiling, marble columns and potted palms.

INT. HOTEL. LOBBY

Kevin rewinds his Walkman.

VOICE

For reservations at the Kensington Towers or any of the other fine American Star hotels worldwide, call 1-800-SANDMAN.

Kevin clicks the Walkman off. He smiles.

KEVIN

I'll do just that.

HT0000001

INT. HOTEL. LOBBY. ALCOVE. PHONE BOOTH

Kevin's standing on a stack of phone books in the booth. He's dialing the 800 number.

INT. HOTEL. LOBBY. ALCOVE. ANOTHER PHONE BOOTH

A young BUSINESS WOMAN in the phone booth across from Kevin is watching him.

HER POV

Kevin's standing on the phone books, standing on tiptoes. He senses he's being watched. He looks across to the Woman.

KEVIN

You know, in the bathrooms they have little toilets for kids. I guess the people who make phone booths don't care as much about kids as the people who make toilets. Excuse me.

He closes the door.

CU. WOMAN

She stares at Kevin.

CU. KEVIN

He gives the Woman a smile. His call is answered. He clears his throat and puts on a deep voice.

KEVIN

Howdy-do, this is Peter McCallister. The father. I'd like to have a hotel room, please.

CU. RESERVATION OPERATOR

A clean-cut, young male OPERATOR is on the other end.

OPERATOR

For which of our hotels, sir?

CU. KEVIN

He smiles. It worked.

KEVIN

The Kensington Towers. New York's most exciting hotel experience.

INT. HOTEL. RECEPTION DESK

The Clerk is working on his computer. He looks up slowly.

HIS POV

HT0000001

The counter and two little hands. Then a head. Kevin pulls himself up on his forearms.

KEVIN

Hi.

CU. CLERK

He looks askance at Kevin.

CLERK

Can I help you?

INT. HOTEL. RECEPTION DESK. KEVIN. FROM BEHIND

Kevin's hanging on the counter. His feet are twelve inches off the floor.

KEVIN

Reservation for McCallister.

CU. CLERK

He stares at Kevin for a long beat.

CLERK
(suspiciously)
A reservation for yourself?

CU. KEVIN

He stares back at the Clerk.

KEVIN
My feet aren't touching the ground. I'm not tall enough to look over this counter. How could I make a reservation for a hotel room? Think about it. A kid coming into a hotel and making a reservation? Not on this planet, sir.

CU. CLERK

He leans his head back in a haughty recovery from his gaffe.

CLERK
I'm confused.

CU. KEVIN

He adjusts his arms, shifts his weight

KEVIN
I'm travelling with my Dad. He's on business. He's at a meeting. I hate meetings, plus I'm not allowed to go in. I can only sit in the lobby, and that's boring. So he dropped me off here...

(presents an Amex card)
...gave me his credit card and said to tell whoever was checking in people to let me in the room, so I don't get into mischief.

INT. ORLANDO AIRPORT. POLICE OFFICE

Kate and Peter are in the small cinder block office overlooking the terminal. They're sitting across a steel desk from Officer Bennett. The other two Officers stand behind and to the side of the desk. More questions.

OFFICER BENNETT
Has the boy ever run away from home?

PETER
No.

OFFICER BENNETT
Has he ever been in a situation where he's been on his own?

KATE
(embarrassed pause)
As a matter of fact, this has happened to us before.
(nervous laugh)
It's becoming a McCallister family travel tradition.

PETER
(innocent chuckle)
Funnily enough, we never lose our luggage.

Kate and Peter lose their humor when they realize that the remarks are falling on dead and unappreciative ears.

KATE
(straight)
He was left home by accident last year.

OFFICER BENNETT
Do you have a recent photo of the boy?

KATE
Yes.

She thinks for a moment.

HT0000001

KATE
(concerned)
In my bag.
(to Peter)
I don't have my bag.

PETER
I don't have it.

KATE
(after a pause)
Kevin had it at the airport. He was looking for batteries. He has my wallet.

OFFICER BENNETT
Did you have credit cards in the wallet?

KATE
Credit cards, money.

OFFICER BENNETT
I want to notify the credit card companies immediately.
If your son has the cards we can get a location on him when and if he uses them.

KATE
I don't think Kevin even knows how to use a credit card.

CU. CREDIT CARD IMPRINT MACHINE. CU. CREDIT CARD

American Express card that reads PETER J. McCALLISTER. A ticket is laid over it and imprinted.

INT. HOTEL. RECEPTION DESK

The Clerk hands the card back to Kevin. He's still hanging on the counter.

KEVIN

(to himself)

Wow. It worked.

CLERK

(snaps his fingers)

Front, please!

(to Kevin)

Enjoy your stay with us. And don't forget to remind your Dad, when he arrives, that he has to come down and sign a couple of things.

KEVIN

My pleasure. You've been most helpful.

INT. HOTEL. CONCIERGE

HT0000001

A thin, gaunt, middle-aged CONCIERGE looks up from his station.

HIS POV

Kevin heads across the lobby with a BELLMAN.

CU. CONCIERGE

He raises a suspicious eyebrow.

INT. HOTEL. HALLWAY

The elevator opens and the Bellman exits carrying the travel bag. Kevin follows. He puts a piece of gum in his mouth.

INT. HOTEL SUITE. DOOR

It opens. The Bellman walks in. Kevin follows. He slows as he enters the room. A huge smile.

KEVIN

This is so great.

HIS POV

A massive suite overlooking the Park.

INT. BEDROOM

Kevin pokes his head in the door and looks at the king-size bed, the large screen TV, the view.

KEVIN

A huge bed, all for me.

INT. BEDROOM. MINI-BAR

The little refrigerator door opens revealing an assortment of drinks and snacks.

CU. KEVIN

Looking at all the goodies.

KEVIN

How convenient.

INT. BATHROOM

An enormous bathroom with a four-person whirlpool tub, separate shower, TV. Kevin sticks his head in.

KEVIN

Luxurious! And spacious!

INT. SUITE. DOOR

H T O O O O O O I

Kevin returns to the living room to find the Bellman waiting at the door.

BELLMAN

(after a pause)

Is the temperature alright for you, sir?

KEVIN

It's okay.

BELLMAN

You know how the TV works?

KEVIN

I'm nine years old. TV is my life.

BELLMAN

Well...

The Bellman's stalling for a tip.

KEVIN

What?

He glances down.

INSERT: BELLMAN'S HAND

Rubbing his fingers together, a signal for a tip.

CU. KEVIN

It occurs to him what he wants.

KEVIN

Oh. I'm sorry.

He reaches into his pocket and pulls out his gum. He gives him a stick.

KEVIN

And there's plenty more where that came from.

INT. HEALTH CLUB. POOL

Half a dozen MEN and WOMEN are relaxing around the pool after a workday. Kevin strolls into the pool area wearing a white robe and adult bathing trunks. They come down to his knees and billow out on the sides. He greets the pool guests with a friendly smile.

KEVIN

How's the water?

WOMAN

Nice.

HT0000001

KEVIN

Good enough.

He peels off the robe and positions himself at the side of the pool.

KEVIN

Would it bother anybody if I worked on my cannon balls?

There's no negative response.

KEVIN

Thanks.

Kevin jumps into the pool, tucks in his legs and does a cannon ball.

INT. STEAM ROOM. LATER

A couple of BUSINESSMEN in their mid-thirties are sitting in the steam room, talking. They're nearly hidden in the clouds of steam.

BUSINESSMAN 1

I'll tell you, the marketing director over at Skilling and Ross has a body on her I'd kill my dog for.

BUSINESSMAN 2

I know who you're talking about. She's got the great big...

Kevin is sitting on the step above the two men. He leans in between them.

KEVIN

Excuse me. If you guys are going to use the F word, I'll have to leave. I promised my grandmother I'd never listen to that kind of talk.

BUSINESSMAN

Sorry. We didn't know you were in here.

KEVIN

It's okay.

He leans back.

BUSINESSMAN 2

Is she married?

Kevin thinks for a moment. He slowly leans forward and looks down at the men.

KEVIN

Excuse me. Are you guys naked?

BUSINESSMAN 1

Yeah.

KEVIN

I'm outta here.

HT0000001

INT. ORLANDO AIRPORT. POLICE OFFICE

Kate and Peter are sitting in the office. They're tired and weary. Officer Bennett comes in.
Peter and Kate straighten up.

OFFICER BENNETT

No news.

Kate and Peter relax.

OFFICER BENNETT

We'd like you to stay here in Orlando at least through tonight. We have to be able to reach you.

PETER

My brother booked us a hotel for the holidays.
(to Kate)

I guess we may as well wait there.

OFFICER BENNETT

Just so you leave us with the number and keep the line open.

KATE

Okay.

CU. TV. SCREEN

A horror movie is playing.

INT. HOTEL SUITE. LIVING ROOM

Kevin's jumping on the bed. A room service cart loaded with desserts is next to the bed.

KEVIN

This is a vacation.

EXT. ORLANDO. RESORT COMPLEX. AIRPORT VAN

The McCallisters look out from a jammed airport van. CAMERA PANS weary, disappointed faces.

THEIR POV

A dreary roadside motel that's long past its prime. Dead palm trees, a car up on blocks in the parking lot, sign falling down, bushes overgrown. The rain continues unabated.

CU. UNCLE FRANK

HT0000001

He looks out at the motel with disdain.

FRANK

It didn't look this bad on our honeymoon.

INT. HOTEL SUITE. BEDROOM. LATER

Kevin's lying in bed. He's casually looking through Kate's bag. The city lights twinkle out the window. He takes out her address book. He thumbs through the pages.

INSERT: ADDRESS BOOK

McCALLISTER, ROB 879 W.105th N.Y.

CU. KEVIN

He thinks for a moment.

KEVIN

Uncle Rob lives here. If they're back from Paris, I'll go drop in on them. They usually give pretty good presents.

He puts the address book back in the bag. He takes out Kate's wallet. He opens it and takes out a picture of the family. It's a recent snapshot. The family is in typical disarray. Buzz is choking him. Jeff's making rabbit ears over Kate. Peter's smiling stiffly and formally with his arms around Linnie and Megan. Megan's blowing a bubble. Linnie's scratching her leg.

CU. KEVIN

A fond smile as he looks at the picture. The smile is short-lived as he feels the separation for the first time. He puts the picture back, returns the wallet to the bag and lies back on the bed. He feels terribly lonely. He looks to the phone.

EXT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE

Night. No lights. PHONE RINGING.

INT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. FOYER

The PHONE CONTINUES TO RING.

INT. MCCALLISTER HOUSE. ATTIC

Unmade bed. Evidence of the rushed departure. The PHONE RINGS a couple more times and stops. A beat and it RINGS AGAIN.

EXT. MOTEL COMPLEX. NIGHT

HT0000001

Cheap Christmas lights and decorations make the place look worse at night. The rain continues.

INT. MOTEL ROOM. KATE

She's on the phone. She lets it ring a few times and hangs up.

INT. MOTEL ROOM

Peter's sitting by the window, staring out at the rain. He looks back at Kate.

PETER

No?

Kate shakes her head, no.

KATE

I thought just maybe he might be at home.

PETER

We'll just have to keep waiting.

KATE

Do you think he's okay?

Peter turns from the window. He nods unconvincingly.

INT. HOTEL. HALLWAY

The elevator door opens and the Concierge steps out. He stops a ROOM MAID and speaks to her (UNHEARD) for a moment. She points to the end of the hall. Another exchange and she surrenders her keys.

INT. SUITE. BED ROOM

There's a sharp KNOCK on the door. Kevin quickly turns off the lights and runs into the bathroom. There's another KNOCK, followed a moment later by the ROOM BELL.

INT. BATHROOM. SHOWER STALL. CU. SHOWER NOZZLE

Kevin turns it on full. Maximum hot.

INT. HOTEL. HALLWAY

The Concierge grins. He thinks he has everything figured out. He inserts the maid's key into the door and carefully and quietly opens the door. He sneaks a look down the hall and slips into the room.

INT. SUITE. LIVING ROOM

The Concierge sneaks across the living room to the bedroom and pushes open the door. He peeks in.

HIS POV

HT0000001

The bathroom door is ajar. The light is on. The shower is going.

INT. BATHROOM. DOOR

The Concierge pushes the door open slowly and sticks his head in.

HIS POV

Dimly reflected in the fogged mirror is the pebbled glass shower stall and the shape of the inflatable clown. We hear UNCLE FRANK SINGING "COOL JERK."

INT. BATHROOM. CU. COUNTER

Kevin's Walkman.

CU. CONCIERGE

A look of concern.

UNCLE FRANK'S VOICE

Get outta here, you nosey little pervert! Or I'll come out and slap you silly!

INT. SUITE. LIVING ROOM

The bedroom door flies open and the Concierge scrambles out. He slams into a wing chair and cracks his knee. He hobbles out of the suite.

INT. MOTEL ROOM

Buzz is sitting on the end of the bed, in the dark, facing a window.

INT. ROOM. BED

Jeff wakes up. He sits up on an elbow.

JEFF

Buzz?

INT. ROOM. BUZZ

He doesn't turn around.

BUZZ

(softly)

What?

INT. BEDROOM. DOOR

Jeff clears his throat.

HT0000001

JEFF

You're really upset, huh?

CU. BUZZ

From the front. He's not crying. He's intently watching something out the window.

BUZZ

Very.

HIS POV

Out the window and across the motel courtyard. A WOMAN is undressing in her room. Her drapes are open.

INT. ROOM. JEFF

He's sad and respectful of Buzz's feelings.

JEFF

He's a tough little guy. He'll make it. Wherever he is.

EXT. HOTEL. MORNING

A white stretch Lincoln is waiting at the curb. The Doorman comes out of the hotel with a pizza box and hands it to the DRIVER. He puts it in the backseat.

INT. HOTEL. KEVIN'S ROOM. BATHROOM

He's standing at the mirror on the back of the bathroom door. He's showered and dressed. He's combing his hair.

KEVIN

I'm not entirely crazy about vacationing alone, especially somewhere where I've never been and nobody knows me. But since I can't call my parents because they're not home and I don't know what number they're at, I'll just have to make the best of the situation until the vacation's over...

(pause)

Oh, no. That's two weeks.

(pause)

I was out of underwear yesterday.

INT. HOTEL. LOBBY. CONCIERGE

He's going over his morning notes. Something catches his eye...

HIS POV

HT0000001

Kevin strolls through the lobby. He waves to the Concierge.

KEVIN

Is my transportation here?

INT. LOBBY. CONCIERGE

Nods and smiles obsequiously.

CONCIERGE

Out in front, sir. A limousine and a pizza.
Compliments of the Kensington Towers Hotel.

KEVIN

New York's most exciting hotel experience.

CONCIERGE

I do hope your father understands that last night I was simply checking the room to make sure everything was in order.

KEVIN

He was pretty mad. He said he didn't come all the way to New York to get his naked rear end spied on.

CONCIERGE

Of course not. Will he be down soon?

KEVIN

He already left.

CONCIERGE

I would like to have offered my personal apology.

KEVIN

If some guy looked at you in the shower, would you want to see him ever again?

CONCIERGE

I suppose not.

KEVIN

I don't think you'll see him for the rest of our trip.

CONCIERGE

I understand.

KEVIN

Bye.

CONCIERGE

Have a pleasant day.

Kevin continues on his way. The Concierge watches him go. His smarmy smile fades. He steps around from behind his desk and crosses to the check-in counter.

EXT. HOTEL

Kevin's jaw drops as he stares at...

HT0000001

INSERT: CREDIT CARD MACHINE

It reads -- STOLEN.

INT. SUBWAY TUNNEL

A train screams past.

INT. SUBWAY CAR

Harry and Marv are sitting in the empty car.

HARRY

We gotta face facts. We don't have the equipment to pull off anything big. I'm talking banks, jewelry stores...

MARV

Art museums.

HARRY

Right. We don't want goods because we don't have the connections here yet to fence anything. We need cash and we need it now.

MARV

How about the hotels? Tourists carry cash.

HARRY

No guarantees. I got a better idea. Stores ain't gonna make bank deposits on Christmas.

MARV

Right.

HARRY

The stores that are gonna have the most cash on hand are the ones that trade in moderate priced goods.

MARV

Right.

HARRY

What store is gonna do the most cash business at Christmas time that nobody's gonna think to rob?

MARV

Liquor store?

HT0000001

HARRY

(after an incredulous stare)
Nine-year-olds rob liquor stores.

He hands a piece of newsprint torn from the evening paper to Marv.

HARRY

This is what I had in mind.

CU. PAPER

It's an ad for a grand toy emporium, Duncan's Toy Chest.

CU. MARV

He looks up with a grin.

MARV

Brilliant, Harry.

CU. HARRY

He's delighted with himself.

HARRY

There's nobody dumb enough to knock off a toy store on Christmas Eve.

CU. MARV

He agrees with an enthusiastic nod and a broad grin.

MARV

Oh, yes there is.

He points to Harry and to himself.

EXT. BLOOMINGDALE'S

Kevin comes out the door with a bag. He steps to the curb and snaps his fingers. A bear and the limo pulls up. The DRIVER gets out. He runs around to Kevin's door.

EXT. BLOOMINGDALE'S. KEVIN AND THE DRIVER

The driver opens the door. He takes the package from Kevin.

KEVIN

Be careful with that.

DRIVER

Yes, sir.

KEVIN

Don't let anybody look in it.

DRIVER

Yes, sir.

Kevin leans in close.

HT0000001

KEVIN

(softly)
It's underpants.

DRIVER

I understand.

The Driver tucks the package under his arm.

DRIVER

Where would you like to go now?

KEVIN

Know any good toy stores?

(smiles)
I sure do.

Kevin hops in the limo.

EXT. DUNCAN'S TOY CHEST

The world's largest and grandest toy store. An old, cast iron building, painted in bright colors, lights all over, elaborate window displays. Seven floors of toys. A huge mechanical toy chest above the main entrance opens and closes. Animated toys rise as the chest opens.

INT. DUNCAN'S TOY CHEST. SECOND FLOOR

Playhouse displays, tree forts, tents, playground sets, bikes, outdoor toys. The front doors on two playhouses open and Harry and Marv crawl out.

MARV

(with a laugh)

Nice house, but no bathroom.

HARRY

Everybody leaves for a nice holiday off, we come out of our little houses and empty the cash registers. We turn off the burglar alarm and walk out like we own the joint.

CU. CHECK-OUT COUNTER

A boxed pair of dart pistols, a Flying Fist rifle and a bottle of Monster Sap Super Slippery Bath Bubbles.

INT. STORE. CHECK-OUT COUNTER

A middle-aged WOMAN is checking the items out

WOMAN

Are you shopping alone?

KEVIN

In New York? Ma'am, I'm afraid of my own shadow.

WOMAN

I like to check.

KEVIN

That's very responsible of you.

WOMAN

Thank you.

KEVIN

My pleasure.

The Woman totals the purchases.

HT0000001

WOMAN

$51.75.

Kevin takes out Kate's cash envelope. The Woman tries to see how much he's carrying. He discreetly turns away from her and takes out three twenties.

WOMAN

Where did you get all that money?

KEVIN

I have a lot of grandmothers.

The Woman bags Kevin's goods.

KEVIN

You have a really nice store here. One of the finer toy dealerships I've visited in my life.

WOMAN

Mr. Duncan's a wonderful man. Did you visit Santa?

KEVIN

(leans forward and whispers)
I'm eleven years old.

WOMAN

Sorry.

KEVIN

It's okay. I have a young face.

WOMAN

I mentioned it because if you'd seen Santa, you would have seen Mr. Duncan. He's the supervising Elf up in our Santa's Workshop.

KEVIN

The guy who owns the place is doing elf work?

WOMAN

Every Christmas Eve. He loves kids.

KEVIN

You'd have to, to work as an elf.

WOMAN

As a matter of fact, all the money the store takes in today, Mr. Duncan donates to the Children's Hospital. The day after Christmas, we total up all the money in the cash registers and Mr. Duncan takes it down to the hospital.

KEVIN

That's very generous of him.

HT0000001

WOMAN

If the real Santa Claus ever retires, Mr. Duncan'll take his place.

Kevin turns away again. He slips another twenty out of the envelope. He turns back and hands it to the Woman.

KEVIN

I'm not supposed to spend this money, but I have twenty dollars from shovelling snow in a jar in our garage where my older brother can't find it, and I can pay my mother back with that. So you can give this to Mr. Duncan. The hospital needs it more than me because I'll probably just spend it on stuff that rots my teeth and my mind.

WOMAN

That's very sweet of you. Merry Christmas.

KEVIN

Merry Christmas to you, too. Be sure and bundle up when you go outside. It's a little nippy.

The Woman smiles her appreciation.

Come on, egghead.

MARV

These might be nice for picking pockets.

HARRY

Put it down.

MARV

Watch. I'll pick my own pocket.

He reaches the toy into his overcoat and fishes around behind his back. Escalator traffic is backing up behind him.

It'd serve you right for playing with the toys while we're casing a job.

Not that kid.

MARV

He don't got a house fulla dangerous goodies this time. He's alone. He's in the Park. Grown-up men go in there and don't come out alive.

What?

KATE

Can you hold on a second? Thank you.

Leslie gives Frank a dirty look.

LESLIE

We'll take care of it.

PETER

Thanks.

FRANK

When you give Kev a piece of your mind, give him a little of mine, too. Enough is enough. This is the second year...

PETER

I just hope that something like this never happens to you. You're gonna feel pretty damn low accepting the help of others when you give so little of your own.

Frank backs off.

HT0000001

FRANK

I just...

PETER

My child's been missing for two days and all you care about is your goddamn money..

CU. KEVIN

He smiles, pleased that the bird has turned back to him.

CU. FIRST PIGEON

It begins to rise. Suddenly, the face of the Pigeon Lady appears beneath it. The bird is sitting on her head. The others are on her outstretched arms.

CU. KEVIN

The color drains from his face. His jaw drops. His eyes open wide.

ECU. PIGEON LADY

The wild, dirty face staring at Kevin.

CU. KEVIN

He SCREAMS!

EXT. PARK. ROCKS

Kevin twists around and tries to jump from the rocks. He's stuck.

CU. KEVIN'S FOOT

In his panic, he's wedged his foot between the rocks.

CU. KEVIN

Tugging furiously on his stuck foot. He looks up.

HIS POV

The Pigeon Lady reaches out a gnarled hand.

CU. KEVIN

He covers his face with his arms.

CU. KEVIN'S FOOT

The Pigeon Lady puts her hand around his ankle, pushes down gently and releases his foot.

CU. KEVIN

He uncovers his face and looks.

HIS POV

The Pigeon Lady backs away from the rock.

EXT. PARK. ROCK

HT0000001

Kevin leaps off the rock and takes off.

CU. PIGEON LADY

She watches him run away.

EXT. PARK. KEVIN

He slows his speed a little. Slows a lot. Stops. Turns.

HIS POV

The Pigeon Lady is walking away, slipping behind the rock.

EXT. PARK. ROCK

The Pigeon Lady has returned to her place behind the rock. She's gathering her possessions into an old canvas mail pouch -- a piece of carpet, bags of bread and seed, a water bottle, an old umbrella. She slowly stops her work and turns.

HER POV

The rock. Kevin walks around from behind it and stands before her.

CU. PIGEON LADY

She's startled to see him. She's nervous. She steps back. She doesn't respond.

EXT. PARK. ROCK

Kevin introduces himself.

KEVIN

I'm Kevin McCallister. I'm from Chicago. Actually, not Chicago. The snotty suburbs of Chicago.

(pause)

I'm sorry I screamed at you. You were just trying to help me.

(puzzled pause)

Right?

The Pigeon Lady nods uncomfortably. Kevin takes a step toward her. She backs away. Kevin stays put, sensing her discomfort.

KEVIN

Your birds are very nice.

HT0000001

The Pigeon Lady relaxes a bit. She nods her appreciation. Kevin sits down on a smaller rock beside the boulder. The Pigeon Lady returns to her work.

KEVIN

I've seen you a couple times. You had pigeons all over you. At first it looks kinda scary. But if you think about it, it's not so bad. They must be all over you because they like you.

The Pigeon Lady looks around at Kevin.

KEVIN

That isn't scary. I just felt like it was because I never saw it before. People do that a lot, you know. They get scared of stuff just because it's not what they're used to. I know it happens to me. But I'm a kid and there's a lot more stuff kids haven't seen before. I guess that's why we get scared so much. My friend one time was riding his bike with me and he got a moth in his mouth. He has allergies so he can't breathe out his nose so he always walks around with his mouth open. It's really bad when he rides his bike. But you know what? He isn't afraid of getting bugs in his mouth anymore because he's used to it. Now I'm used to you and I'm not scared.

The Pigeon Lady considers the long ramble and its gentle objective.

KEVIN

If I'm bothering you, I can leave. Am I bothering you?

It's been a long time since she's spoken. She opens her mouth but nothing comes out. She shakes her head. no. And then...

PIGEON LADY

No.

KEVIN

Good. I'm not a pain in the butt?

She shakes her head, no.

KEVIN

Will those pigeons come back on their own or do you have to call them?

Kevin looks up.

EXT. SKY

The pigeons circle above.

EXT. PARK. PIGEON LADY

HT0000001

She reaches into her pocket for a handful of seed. She reaches out for Kevin's hand. She opens it and puts the seed in his palm. She motions for him to throw it. Kevin tosses the seed.

PIGEON LADY

They can hear it.

EXT. SKY

The pigeons circle down.

EXT. PARK

The pigeons swarm down to the seed.

CU. KEVIN

His eyes twinkle. He smiles.

KEVIN

(amazed)

That's great!

EXT. LA GUARDIA. LATER

A 727 touches down.

EXT. NEW YORK. BUILDINGS

The night lights. CAMERA TILTS DOWN to a side street, to the road surface and a sewer grate. Flickering light escapes

PIGEON LADY'S VOICE

I'm like the birds I care for. People pass me on the streets, they see me, they try to ignore me. They wish, like the pigeons, I wasn't a part of their city.

INT. SEWER

A massive sewer tunnel. Kevin and the Pigeon Lady are sitting over a small fire.

PIGEON LADY

They don't consider that pigeons have lives to lead and babies to care for. They don't think that they have a place in the order of things. I love them because no one else does. I know they love me because I take care of them, but I also hope that they love me because I'm as easy to despise as they are.

KEVIN

(after a considered pause)

Yeah. Sometimes I feel like that with my family. I'm kind of the pigeon of our house. It's because I'm the youngest.

HT0000001

PIGEON LADY

People always fight for position. Everybody wants to be seen and heard.

KEVIN

I guess so. I get seen and heard pretty much. But then I get sent to my room a lot, too.

PIGEON LADY

I wasn't always a crazy old lady.

KEVIN

Oh? What were you before?

PIGEON LADY

I had a job. I had a home. I had friends.

KEVIN

Did you have kids?

PIGEON LADY

No. I wanted them but the man I loved fell out of love with me. It broke my heart, and then every time a chance to be loved came by, I ran from it.

KEVIN

No offense, but that seems sort of a dumb thing to do.

PIGEON LADY

I was afraid of getting my heart broken again.

KEVIN

Okay. I understand that. I used to have this really nice pair of roller blades and I was afraid that if I wore them, I'd wreck them. So I kept them in the box. And you know what happened?

PIGEON LADY

What?

KEVIN

I outgrew them. I never used them once outside. I just wore them in my room a couple times.

PIGEON LADY

A person's heart and their feelings are a little different than skates.

KEVIN

It's kind of the same thing. If you aren't gonna use your heart, what's the difference if it gets broken? If you just keep it to yourself, maybe it'll be like my roller blades. When you do decide to try it, it won't be any good. You should take a chance. You got nothing to lose.

HT0000001

PIGEON LADY

There's some truth there.

KEVIN

I think so. Your heart might still be broken but it's not gone. If it was gone, you wouldn't be this nice. You wouldn't invite me into your sewer.

PIGEON LADY

It's been a couple years since I even talked to someone.

KEVIN

That's okay. You're really good at it. You're not boring, you don't mumble or spit when you talk. You should do it more often. I think you'd just have to wear an outfit that doesn't have pigeon poop on it.

PIGEON LADY

I was working pretty hard at keeping people away.

KEVIN

I always think I'll have a lot of fun if I'm alone, but then when I am alone, it isn't fun at all. I don't care how much some people bug me sometimes, I'd rather be with them than by myself.

PIGEON LADY

So what're you doing running around the streets on Christmas Eve? Did you get in trouble?

Kevin nods sheepishly.

KEVIN

Yeah.

The Pigeon Lady nods. It's as she expected.

PIGEON LADY

You did something wrong?

KEVIN

A lot of things.

HT0000001

PIGEON LADY

A good deed erases a bad deed. You know that.

KEVIN

It's pretty late. I don't know if I'm gonna have enough time to do all the good deeds I need to erase all the bad ones I did.

PIGEON LADY

You'll be fine. It's Christmas Eve. Good deeds count extra tonight.

KEVIN

They do?

PIGEON LADY

That's right. You think of the most important thing you can do for others right now and then you go do it.

CU. KEVIN

He considers what she's said to him. After a considered pause, he nods.

KEVIN

(grinning)

Okay.

INT. SEWER

Kevin stands up. He offers his hand to the Pigeon Lady.

KEVIN

If I don't see you again, I hope everything comes out okay.

PIGEON LADY

Thanks.

KEVIN

Say goodbye to your birds for me.

Kevin starts up the ladder to the street.

CU. PIGEON LADY

She watches Kevin. This won't be the last time she sees him.

Even if they don't take back the things they said. I don't care. I love all of them. Including Buzz. If it isn't possible that I see all of them could I just see my mother? I'll never want another thing as long as I live. I just want my mother. I know I won't see her tonight, but just promise me I can see her again. Sometime. Anytime. Even if it's just once for only a couple minutes. I need to tell her I'm sorry.
